

Monitoring Molecules in Neuroscience

The 18th International Conference

June 29th – July 2nd, 2022

Lyon, France

MMiN provides an excellent forum for presentation of the latest developments in methods for time-resolved detection of chemicals in the living brain, and their application to current topics in neuroscience, psychology, neurology and psychiatry.

16 SYMPOSIA + 1 WELCOME SYMPOSIUM

4 PLENARY SPEAKERS

Stephanie Cragg, Oxford, UK

Sergi Ferre, Baltimore, USA

Brigitte Kieffer, Montréal, Canada

Ana Pocivavsek, Columbia, South Carolina, USA

POSTER SESSIONS

EXHIBITION AREA

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DEADLINE: APRIL 1ST

VENUE

UCLy Saint-Paul Campus

10 Place des Archives, Lyon 2^e

INFORMATION & CONTACT

<http://mmin2022.univ-lyon1.fr>

mmin2022@univ-lyon1.fr

